November 2, 2021 – New York – finStream TV, a dynamic OTT/Streaming channel targeted to the specific personal financial needs of different generations and their unique media consumption habits, announced the following appointments to the finStream Advisory Board.

Joining finStream’s Advisory Board are Lee Baker, Sarah Fay, Julie Bennett Iannuzzi and Michael Milligan. Lee Baker, CFP, has been recognized as one of Investopedia’s Top 100 Advisors in America. His passion for helping people achieve financial security combined with a desire to bring a little bit of “Wall Street” to “your street” led him to establish Apex Financial Services. Sarah Fay has more than 20 years of experience in the marketing services industry, with a track record of leveraging technology to deliver groundbreaking new models for advertising and media. Julie Bennett Iannuzzi is a Peabody Award Winning journalist, with strong business and product background leading video operations at WSJ Digital Network (WSJ, Marketwatch, Barron’s, Smart Money), USA Today, CBS New York, MTV Networks, and other television and digital operations. Mike Milligan is a finance professor at California State University Fullerton. He is also the Founder and Managing Director of the Applied Security Analysis Program at (now known as Titan Capital Management) at California State University Fullerton and has over 30 years experience on Wall Street.

“We’re thrilled that Lee, Sarah, Julie and Mike have joined the finStream Advisory Board” said finStream Co-founder and award winning journalist Robert Powell. “Each of them brings complementary skills to help support finStream’s mission of improving financial literacy.”
